A Real World Approach to Treating Tobacco Use in Mental Health Settings

Presented by

Jill Williams, MD

Associate Professor of Psychiatry, Director, Division of Addiction Psychiatry, UMDNJ-Robert Wood Johnson Medical School

People with serious mental illness smoke more than others, yet, many mental health professionals are uncertain how to help consumers stop using tobacco. On February 8th, Dr. Jill Williams will lay out a two-tiered treatment program that motivates people to stop smoking and when ready, helps them be successful.

This program has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for CME (ACCME) through joint sponsorship with the University at Buffalo School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences and the NYS Tobacco Cessation Centers.

The University at Buffalo is accredited by the ACCME to sponsor CME for physicians. The UB School of Medicine & Biomedical Sciences designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1Credit(s)™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

CASAC Clock Hours pending OASAS approval.

Application has been made to the American Association for Respiratory Care (AARC) for continuing education contact hours for respiratory therapists.
